The Next Meeting is January 22nd

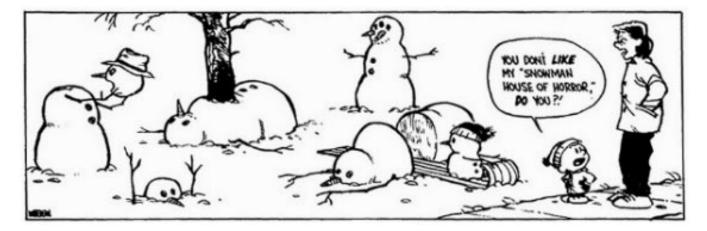

The next meeting will be January 22nd hosted by Mike & Chris Connor. We will be gathering at Matt Kenseth's Museum near Cambridge WI around 10:30AM. We will tour the museum and check out the gift shop for souvenirs. If we are lucky, maybe Matt will be in town, and if not, we'll be sure to have a good time anyway. This should be fun!

The Matt Kenseth Museum is located west of Cambridge, Wisconsin, on US 12/18 just 20 minutes from Madison. We're just an hour from Milwaukee and 2½ hours from the Chicago area.

Admission is free and you are welcome to take photos and view our exhibits and cars.

From here we will head to Reverend Jim's Roadhouse located at 6402 Millpond Road, just off US 12/18 & I-90/94 near Madison for lunch with our meeting to follow.

The November Meeting Minutes

The November meeting took place at Mason's Grill & Pub in Prairie du Sac, Wl. We had 10 adults, 1 small trucker and due to the time of year, no custom trucks. Rick & Ros Pribbenow hosted the meeting and Mason's served some generous and delicious food ordered off their menu. From the reaction of the members, it was well liked-both atmosphere and food. Thanks Rick & Ros for hosting.

The meeting was called to order at 12:48PM.

Reports from Officers

Secretary – Rick read the minutes from the August meeting (no Sept. or Oct. meeting).

Treasurer/Membership – Mike reported for Chris the club's checkbook balance. We had 3 previous new memberships and we added 1 new membership today, Mark, Rhonda and Spenser Berg. The Bergs are from Cashton, WI and have a 1966 F-100 short box fleet side. Mark is still in the planning/building stages (having recently bought it) but said it may make it to Dash 22. Welcome to the Badgerland F-100's Berg family!

Vice President – Dave said he's been working on his truck – "feelin' it" – as he put it. Dave said he really enjoyed the Mystery Cruise we had in October and was glad to see everyone. Dave said he has the names for the Participants Choice Awards and he is working on the plaques.

President - Mike asked for any old business to be discussed.

OLD BUSINESS

Mike asked Dave about screen printing some flamed hoodie sweatshirts, and will try to get an order form in the next newsletter. The club received a thank you note from Mike Sonn for the memorial we sent on the loss of his sister, Bonnie Frisch. Mike said the Great Wolf Lodge sent us a thank you. Mike handed Rick a Slack's article that maybe he can put in the newsletter. The Dash 21 financials are on track – almost all items have been paid. The Dash thank you artwork and letters are ready.

Mike asked for any other old business - hearing none we moved to new business.

NEW BUSINESS

Mike & Chris will host the January 2011 meeting. We need a sponsor for the February meeting/Christmas Party – Rick & Ros volunteered as Dave and the rest said Mason's has good food (suggested this be a place for our Christmas Party). Mike asked if we had interest in Dash 22. Dave Farmer motioned to get the contract with the Great Wolf Lodge once again and Floyd Johnson seconded the motion. All were in favor. Rick Linskens needs to confirm the Dash 22 dates and they will be September 15, 16, 17, 2011. Dave Farmer asked if the Winter Banquet could be held at the same location as the last 3 years – Prairie du Sac Town Hall. The weekends decided upon were March 19 or 26. All agreed. Rick Pribbenow will book the hall. Rick will also set up a time/menu etc. with Jeff Mason of Mason's Grill & Pub for the Christmas Party for February 19 or 26. Dave Farmer will set up an event to the car show/World of Wheels in Milwaukee for January/February.

Mike asked that anyone who wants to host a work party will need to contact the members via newsletter or email alerts so they can come and help you.

Mike asked for any other new business - hearing none, we moved to adjourn.

Motion to adjourn by Ros Pribbenow and seconded by Jeff Mundt. All were in favor.

Meeting adjourned at 1:10PM.

Gift Exchange

If you are a first timer at the club Christmas party, you may need to know the details of the gift exchange. Each person attending should bring a wrapped gift. Keep in mind that when we do the gift "game", your gift could go to a man or a woman. The gift can be just about anything. It can be a gag gift, something truck related, something new, something old, something you made, or whatever you want it to be. If you are buying something, we usually suggest not spending more than $20.

Everyone is given a number and as we proceed through the numbers, each new person can either steal an existing open gift, or open a new wrapped gift... and you can't have the same gift more than once in a round.

From the Editor

Wow! Where did 2010 go? Well, we "cruised" through it for a number of reasons; like our meetings, agendas and deadlines, the awesome Christmas Party, the fun Winter Banquet, all the hard work and preparation for the 21st Dash To the Dells and the Mystery Cruise just to name a few. Oh, let's not leave out our many family functions, jobs, trucks we worked on during the cruising season, helping others and births of children and grandchildren. It's been a trying year again for most of us due to the economy, but we are a hardy bunch and somehow tend to persevere. Well, enough about 2010, on to 2011.

Let's look forward to yet another great year of family and friends, hard work and most of all – fun!

Please remember those less fortunate than us at this time of the Christmas season and throughout the year. Stay happy and healthy.

Wishing you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

See you all soon.

Mark Slack, co-owner of Slack's Jelly Farm near Lodi, uses a wooden paddle to stir a batch of Dutch apple jam. The 40 gallons of jam, when done cooking, will be transferred by hand in kettles to the filling machine, left. Each batch fills about 500 half-pint jars.

Hands-on success since 1954

Family owned Slack's Jelly Farm has survived tough times in the past

> ODI — There are machines out there that can apply a label or secure a cap to a glass jar.

But not at this jelly, jam and salsa operation.

Technology has been slow to arrive at Slack's Jelly Farm, sitting on a hilltop and dead-end road just south of Lake Wisconsin. Since 1954, to supplement income from the farm, the family business has been making spreads for morning toast primarily by hand.

The process, which includes stirring batches with large wooden paddles, has served the Slack family well. Its product lines — sold in grocery and specialty food stores, farm markets and orchards around the Midwest and in their own store — have expanded. The business has endured the economic downturns of the early 1970s and 1980s and, over the past two years, a recession that forced many small businesses, and some larger ones, into closure.

Mark Slack, co-owner, said business has been consistent despite the downturn. "We haven't moved ahead a lot or lost ground either. We're in the type of market niche that really hasn't been hit by the economy."

That steadiness has allowed the Slacks to replace their antiquated warehouse with a more modern facility, keep production going three days a week and keep the doors to the company store – located in a former bedroom of the 1857 homestead farmhouse — open six days a week. They are closed on Sundays.

The list of homemade products includes dozens of flavors of jams, jellies, spreadable fruit and fruit butters. There are innovative flavors such as root beer jelly and a line of flavors geared toward tourists. The Wisconsin Wildlife Preserve products include Mosquito Marmalade, Black and Blue Bear-y, Raccoon Razzle-Boozle and Gray Wolf Boysen Grape.

Salsas were added about 15 years ago under the Ol' Snort name, with flavors such as corn and black bean, Bogberry (made with cranberry), apple, cherry and Vidalia onion peach.

"We use good, quality stuff," said co-owner Ethel Slack, 83, Mark Slack's mother. "We don't use any corn syrup or preservatives or fillers. We make it just the way (it's made) at home, with pure cane sugar, not beet (sugar), and you can taste the difference."

Much of the fruit comes from orchards in Washington and Oregon, but peaches, rhubarb and blueberries come from Michigan, and apples and cranberries come from Wisconsin. A freezer the size of a four-car garage serves as a storage area for the fruit, which is typically shipped in plastic buckets. Sugar is purchased by the ton, and jars by the thousand.

In 1972, when Ethel Slack first started the business, a truckload of jars cost $3,000. That price has risen over the years to $25,000.

Competition also has increased, as more brands battle for shelf space in the grocery aisle and online. The Slacks' products can be found throughout the state and in parts of Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota.

"We have two very good salesmen," Ethel Slack said. "They take care of their trucks well and their accounts well."

Local accounts include Janesvillebased Woodman's and its 13 stores; Willy Street Co-op in Madison, which is adding a second store in Middleton; Jenifer Street Market and Metcalfe's Market, both in Madison; Paoli Cheese Store in Paoli; Ehlenbach's Cheese Chalet in DeForest; and Mousehouse Cheesehaus in Windsor.

of Ethel's husband, Cecil Slack — used to sell eggs, baked goods and garden produce door-to-door from the trunk of their car to tourists who stayed in cabins around Lake Wisconsin. When they began selling jars of home-canned wild blackberry jam, the response was overwhelming.

At one point, jam and jelly customers used the honor system and dropped money into a small box in a roadside stand outside the house. That sales technique is long gone, but the production process is about the same as it was in 1954 — when Dwight D. Eisenhower was president, Texas Instruments introduced the transistor radio, and the last new episode of the "Lone Ranger" aired on radio.

Ethel and Cecil Slack worked in the business since the early 1960s and took over the operation full time in 1972. Mark Slack, now 56, returned to the family business in 1989 following the death of Cecil.

His duties include making jellies, jams and salsa, developing new recipes, designing labels and managing the business.

One of the company's policies is to buy back any unsold product from vendors. It doesn't happen often but makes for a good working relationship, Mark Slack said.

"Over the years, we've found what will sell and what won't," he said. "We just try not to produce stuff that will be a dog on people's shelves. It doesn't do either one of us any good."

Batches used to be made in 6-gallon kettles over natural-gas burners, but most of the production now is done with 40gallon boilers, which make enough to fill 500 half-pint jars. The mixture is stirred by hand and then transferred into kettles, where it is poured into a large funnel that feeds the product into jars. Lids are then screwed on and labels applied by hand before being hand-packed into boxes.

On a good day, 2,500 half-pint jars can be produced. Spreads sell from $3.95 to $6.95 a jar, and salsa, $4.59 to $7.95 a jar.

"People want a good product," Ethel Slack said. "It's a quality product. You can taste the fruit, not just the sugar."
